Art Unit: 1745

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 48-65 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claims contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventors, at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. (New Rejection)

Applicant has claimed a "cavity" in claim 48, however there is no specific description of a cavity in the present specification and the same is also not depicted in the drawings. It is thus indefinite exactly what makes up or comprises the said cavity.

Applicant has claimed "at least two terminals electrically connected to the cells" and specified that the two terminals are "disposed above the cavity". The recited two terminals are also not set forth in the present description and specifically shown in the drawings. It is not clear what comprises or constitutes the said two terminals.

Finally, because both the cavity and the two terminals have not been described in the present specification and drawings, it is not clear the relation between these two elements.

Claims 49-65, dependent on claim 48, fall therewith.

3. In view of the above indefiniteness of claims 48-65, a prior art search could not be conducted because of the claimed subject matter not being understood.
